PEER BASED SERVICES

Peers are an important part of the care continuum. Studies show talking to a person who has had similar experiences can be helpful to members in recovery. Peers are adults with lived experience from a behavioral health and/or substance use disorder who provide education, outreach, and other types of services to members. They support engagement in treatment, help navigate the service system, and identify natural supports. Peers may also be parents of children who have experience with the children's behavioral health system. Beacon Health Options, CT implements an extensive training program in coordination with advocacy agencies to build additional leadership and mentoring skills amongst the Peer staff.

GOALS OF THE PEER TEAM

- Provide training and assistance for behavioral health and substance use initiatives
- Improve treatment outcomes by improving treatment engagement
- Normalize the recovery process for members
- Provide support navigating the system
- Support a community of non-traditional services, and
- Lend their voice to the recovery network in Connecticut

THE ROLE OF THE PEER IS TO

- Share ways of coping with distressing symptoms
- Provide support and encouragement from the perspective of someone who has lived with a similar experience
- Provide educational mentoring
- Promote recovery and resiliency by providing outreach services while serving as a role model/mentor
- Support children and families who need assistance in accessing services or engaging in treatment
- Provide training for providers, adult members, families, community collaborative groups, and the ASO staff
- Help promote skill development
- Support active participation in the treatment process
- Manage a directory of statewide peer support resources
- Develop and distribute educational materials for providers, members, and the ASO staff
- Coordinate educational efforts for families, schools, faith-based communities, social and medical health care providers, and
- Work with community collaborative groups and advocacy agencies to support family and community-based resources that are culturally competent, and which embrace and promote the principles of recovery and resiliency

RECOVERY AND RESILIENCY

The ASO includes Peers in an array of services that are offered directly to, or on behalf of, members. Peers are embedded within the CT BHP and ensure recovery and resiliency are not only supported, but encouraged, from outreach to outcomes. Peers understand that there are multiple paths to recovery.

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH RESOURCES FOR CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

LIMITED BENEFIT PROGRAM

The Limited Benefit Program is for children or adolescents who are not eligible for HUSKY. Under this program, those children or adolescents may be able to access some of the services offered within the CT BHP. If it is determined that a child or family is not eligible for benefits under HUSKY and has complex behavioral health needs, they may apply for this program which offers limited coverage. Currently, the only service offered through the Limited Benefit Program is Intensive Home-Based Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Services (IICAPS).

DCF VOLUNTARY SERVICES PROGRAM

The Voluntary Services program is a DCF operated program for children and youth with serious emotional disturbances, mental illness, and/or substance dependency. This program is only for families who are not abusive or neglectful. The Voluntary Services Program emphasizes a community-based approach and attempts to coordinate service delivery across multiple agencies. Parents and families are critical players in this program and are required to participate in the planning and delivery of services for their child or youth. The Voluntary Services Program promotes positive development and reduces reliance on restrictive forms of treatment and out-of-home placement.

DCF may provide, on a voluntary basis (at the request of the family), casework, community referrals and treatment services for children who are not committed to the Department. These are youth who do not require protective services intervention; but who, due to emotional or behavioral difficulties, may require any of the services offered by, administered by, under contract with, or otherwise available to, the Department of Children and Families.

The Voluntary Services Program is designed for children and youth who have behavioral health needs and who require services that are not otherwise accessible to them. Parents do not have to relinquish custody or guardianship under this program. The DCF policy outlines eligibility requirements.

For additional information about the Voluntary Services Program, or to request an application, contact the DCF Care line number at 800-842-2288. If you would like assistance in understanding the process, you can contact the CT BHP Member Service line for help at 877-552-8247.

CONNECTICUT'S COMMUNITY COLLABORATIVE MEETINGS

In 1997, the state of Connecticut adopted a "System of Care" model for its state mental health plan for children. This federally supported model of service delivery is based on the idea that children with behavioral health challenges do better when they can receive services in their community, and when those services involve their parents/caregivers. The Community Collaborative meetings (Systems of Care) in Connecticut are groups of service providers, advocates, individuals, and family members who meet on a regular basis. They help individuals and families locate needed services and develop treatment plans with input from the family. Each of the 25 Community Collaborative meetings has workers called Care Coordinators and Family Advocates. These people work with a family to help identify the child's service needs and to help the family decide the kind of service they want. Individuals and families do not need to be involved with DCF or be eligible for HUSKY to receive help from the Community Collaborative meetings. However, some services that are recommended may require the family to enroll in HUSKY or in DCF's Voluntary Services program. To learn more about the Community Collaborative meetings, and to view a current list of meeting times and locations, visit the website at: www.wrapct.org

CONNECTICUT FAVOR, INC. - WWW.FAVOR-CT.ORG

This organization facilitates Family Advocacy for Children's Behavioral Health. FAVOR's mission is to provide family-focused, advocacy-based, and culturally sensitive community services that improve outcomes and family wellbeing. FAVOR works to ensure that Connecticut's public policies promote a family driven system of care that is responsive to the needs of the family. FAVOR's programs include: Family Peer Support Program, Family System Manager Program, and The CT Medical Home Initiative.

RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICES

Residential care is a specialized service that is used only after other treatment services have been attempted and not helped. If you believe that your child needs this type of care, you must apply to the Department of Children and Families for the Voluntary Services Program (see “DCF Voluntary Services Program” in this Guide). A Voluntary Services worker will help you collect information from the doctors, counselors, and other providers with whom you have worked. That will help determine whether Residential Treatment Services are needed, and if so, what kind of residential care your child may need. The Voluntary Services worker may also help you find another kind of specialized treatment so your child can remain at home. You can call and request an application for Voluntary Services by contacting the DCF Hotline number at 800-842-2288. If you are uncertain about the process, you can call the CT BHP Customer Services line for help at 877-552-8247.
