Attention Providers – Provider Bulletin PB16-37 New Autism Spectrum Disorder Services is being rescinded

Providers are advised to disregard Provider Bulletin PB16-37, New Autism Spectrum Disorder Services, as the Department of Social Services (DSS) is rescinding this provider bulletin.

In the coming weeks, DSS will be communicating to providers additional information regarding reimbursement and billing for Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Services.

Until further communications are issued, providers are instructed to continue to bill for ASD services as outlined in PB 2014-99.
